

I fear that Broadband over Power Line will cause interference to services using 2-80 MHz, making that portion of the spectrum totally unusable. There is no evidence to the contrary, and further research is needed. I fully support the Comment submitted by the American Radio Relay League.